

Ride around Mandurah

Scenic rides around Mandurah and surrounds

TRAVELLING BY BIKE:

Riding a bicycle is becoming increasingly popular in Western Australia. In addition to reducing traffic on our roads, cycling also improves health and fitness and is a fun and inexpensive way to get around.

Mandurah, located 75 kilometres south of Perth, is connected to the metropolitan rail network. This map shows local shared paths and cycle friendly streets as well as three scenic rides incorporating Mandurah's train station, trips around town and along the coast line. The map also features places of interest, shopping and rest areas, BBQ facilities and bike-specific infrastructure like bike lockers and shops.

Mandurah City Loop

Overall Distance: Approximately 7km
Starting and finishing at the train station this loop passes the visitor centre, Mandurah Plaza and Mandurah's Foreshore featuring a variety of restaurants and views of the estuary.

Coastal Ride, Madora Bay to Dawesville Channel

Overall Distance: Approximately 30km
Passing Mandurah's Foreshore the coastal ride features uninterrupted ocean views from the Boardwalk Boulevard Park all the way to the Dawesville Channel.

Coodanup Loop

Overall Distance: Approximately 11km
Also commencing and finishing at the train station this loop features parklands along the Coodanup Foreshore and Mariners Cove Drive with views of the Peel Inlet.

Mandurah to Rockingham

Overall Distance: Approximately 36km
Following the coast, the leg between Secret Harbour and Port Kennedy crosses coastal suburbs, then returns to the shoreline's shared path. Make this journey as long or short as you like and use the Perth Bike Map Series 'Cockburn / Rockingham' if you choose to cycle the entire ride.
